Alright brothers and sisters, now's the time to let the world know how you're gonna let your light shine. Go ahead and shout it out. How you're gonna make this world a better place? I'm gonna give hugs and kisses, love my family, paint the world with beautiful colors, help my brother raise his son, make love priority number one, sing, stop pollution, be a good role model, tell the truth, babysit my sister, recycle, play with everybody, spread the magic of music, dance, give my husband a massage, be there for the folks I love, build you a house, spread laughter, share blood, include people, stand up for my brother and sister, Love people, I'm gonna be the best person I can be!
